Do You Need Volunteer Hours???

The Nebraska Children's Groundwater Festival is Tuesday, May 11, 2010. We're looking for a group of high school students to present a hands-on classroom about groundwater to 4th -5th grade students from across Nebraska.

Supplies needed for the class would be provided through the Jami Harper Festival Grant.

If interested in presenting a class or need some ideas on what to present, contact:

Marcia Lee: lee@cpnrd.org or

Kelly Cole: cole@cpnrd.org
